

Local Rule 28. Briefs

- 1. Briefs must be compact, logically arranged with proper headings, concise, and free from burdensome, irrelevant, immaterial, and scandalous matter. Briefs not complying with this rule may be disregarded and stricken by the court.
- 2. Appellant's brief shall include, as a preliminary statement, the name of the judge or agency member who rendered the decision appealed from and, if the judge's decision or supporting opinion is reported, the citation thereof.