Our library handles more than traditional collection, preservation, and dissemination of information-- much more. An ideal applicant has an awareness of issues, standards, trends, and current best practices regarding a wide range of methods for data collection and its use. Mainly we are seeking candidates with strong organizational, writing and communications skills to participate in a variety of projects centered towards the Court's progress into the world of research and technology.

POSITION OVERVIEW: Someone in a library school program or recent graduate with:

- Experience providing research services
- Experience working in interactive digital learning environments and with collaborative tools
- Experience providing instructional and reference services including the creation of online tutorials, surveys, or guides
- Understanding of instructional design concepts, especially in an online environment
- Understanding of web accessibility issues and familiarity with accessibility standards and validation tools
- Web coding and programming experience a plus

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: The position requires a high school diploma or equivalent. To qualify for a higher rate of pay, applicants must have either: (i) one year (30 semester or 45 quarter hours) of education beyond high school; or (ii) one year of general work experience involving audio/visual and telecommunication experience or other work that indicates the possession of, or the ability to acquire, the knowledge and skills needed to perform the duties of the position. Applicants must be able to work at least 20 hours per week from Monday through Friday, 8:30am - 5:00pm, for a total of six weeks. More than one position may be filled. This position may be extended.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Must be a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident seeking U.S. citizenship. Positions with the U.S. Courts are excepted service appointments, which are "at will" and may be terminated with or without cause. All interns are subject to strict confidentiality requirements. The candidate(s) selected for the position will be brought on provisionally pending the results of a background investigation. Direct deposit of pay required.

TO APPLY: Please submit a cover letter and resume as a single PDF file by email to resumes@ca2.uscourts.gov, subject line: "Librarian Internship, Reference No. FY 16-09." Your cover letter should include your summer availability and best means of contacting you. A sample of your work product is welcomed, but not required. However, please limit writing samples to 5 pages. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Only candidates selected for an interview will be notified. No phone calls, please.
