Salary Range: JSP 9 – JSP 11 ($63,609 - $100,044)
Depending on experience, present salary, and qualifications
Closing Date: Open Until Filled

The United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit invites applications for the position of Paralegal to a United States Circuit Judge.

POSITION OVERVIEW: The Paralegal is responsible for the day-to-day operation of chambers and performs administrative and legal duties as assigned by the Judge. These include cite checking, reviewing orders in both civil and criminal cases, providing research assistance to law clerks, and maintaining electronic case files and databases. Additionally, the Paralegal will receive telephone calls and visitors; prepare correspondence and reports; help the Judge manage his or her involvement with various judicial committees and events; and maintain office functionality, from ordering supplies to coordinating technical assistance.

The Paralegal is also responsible for the administrative aspects of preparing the Judge for calendar. These include performing case checks for potential conflicts of interest, organizing calendar materials, accessing and reviewing case files, reminding clerks of critical deadlines, maintaining a database, preparing expense reports, and making travel arrangements.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants must possess a bachelor's degree or paralegal certificate from an accredited program. One to three years of specialized work experience preferred.* The candidate will be required to exercise a high degree of interpersonal skill in dealing with court staff, other judicial chambers, federal agency officials, and the public. Qualified applicants must also possess superior technical, organizational, verbal and written communication skills, including superior editing and proofreading skills; and demonstrated ability to understand material contained in legal opinions and orders and the ability to prepare correspondence, and to make revisions under time constraints as required. Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, and other computer programs is required; familiarity with an electronic case filing management system is preferred. Discretion and the ability to maintain confidentiality are essential.

*Specialized work experience is defined as progressively responsible experience that is in or closely related to the work of the position that has provided the particular knowledge, skills and abilities to successfully perform the duties of the position. A juris doctor (JD) from an ABA-approved law school may be substituted for up to one year of specialized work experience.

BENEFITS: 13 days of vacation for the first three years, which increases with tenure. 13 days of sick leave and 11 holidays. Choice of employer-subsidized federal health and life insurance plans, with optional dental, vision, and long-term care coverage. Flexible spending account program. Federal Employees Retirement System and employer-matching Thrift Savings Plan (similar to a 401K). Public transportation subsidy (budget dependent).

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Must be a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident seeking U.S. citizenship. Positions with the U.S. Courts are excepted service appointments, which are “at will” and may be terminated with or without cause. Employees are hired provisionally, pending the results of a background investigation. Direct deposit of pay required.

TO APPLY: Please submit a cover letter and resume as a single PDF attachment by email to resumes@ca2.uscourts.gov, subject line: Paralegal, Reference No. FY 22-12. When saving your documents as one PDF, it is important to name the file using only your firstname_lastname. Only candidates selected for an interview will be notified and must travel at their own expense.
