

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SECOND CIRCUIT

ORDER

The United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit adapted its rules and procedures to reduce the burdens on the bar and pro se litigants who practice before the Court during the disruption caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Consistent with this effort, by order dated August 18, 2020 the Court reduced the number of paper copies of briefs required by its Local Rules. Now as the disruption caused by the pandemic eases,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the August 18, 2020 order is vacated. Effective, July 6, 2021, the Court will resume enforcing the Local Rules regarding the number of paper copies to be submitted to the Court.

The Court's Local Rules require the filing of six paper copies of briefs in all cases. See L.R. 31.1. A party represented by counsel must file six copies of the appendix, unless the case is proceeding on the original record without an appendix. See L.R. 30.1(b), (e). The six paper copy requirement also applies to a supplemental and special appendix when it is filed. See L.R. 30.1(g); 32.1(c).

In addition, three paper copies of documents that exceed 50 pages must be submitted to the Court. L.R. 21.1(b); 27.1(4); If a petition for rehearing en banc exceeds 50 pages, 15 paper copies of the petition must be submitted to the Court. See L.R. 35.1(c).
